On the ball with the Managerial Team

Welcome to today's visitors Arsenal for this FA Cup fifth round tie.

The Gunners will, of course, be aiming to repeat their draw here at Burnden in October — or maybe go one better!

The Wanderers return to Burnden after putting up a fine showing at Leeds United in the League last Saturday. And they couldn't have started that game in more dynamic fashion.

With only 54 seconds gone, a Roy Greaves pass sent Neil Whatmore racing through and he hit target in grand style.

Leeds equalised shortly afterwards, then took the lead early in the second half. But the Wanderers hadn't finished and Roy Greaves scored the goal that earned a vital point.

Incidentally, the same duo scored the goals in the side's previous outing — the FA Cup fourth round home tie against Halifax — a win that earned the Wanderers today's Arsenal visit.

Bolton fans will be hoping for a repeat of the Leeds showing with the result giving a much needed boost of confidence.

It was Alan Gowling's first defensive role since he joined the Wanderers — an interesting change of tactics by Stan Anderson in his first game in charge of the team.

Today's reserve game at Nottingham Forest was postponed at the request of the Midlands club, but there are a couple of new dates to pencil in your diaries.

On Tuesday, provided that today's game doesn't end in a draw, Norwich City will visit Burnden Park — that game should have been played today.

And the away game that everyone usually wants to see — the visit to Manchester United postponed on New Year's Day will now be played at Old Trafford on Wednesday, February 27 at 7.30 p.m.

But back to today's game with the magic of the FA Cup here at Burnden again.

Arsenal come here fresh from their 3-1 home League win over Aston Villa with Frank Stapleton grabbing a couple of goals and Graham Rix the other.

One thing is certain, the FA Cup holders haven't come here today to let the coveted trophy slip from their grasp. Here's hoping it will be a game to remember.

Welcome to ARSENAL

Arsenal, the F.A. Cup holders, come to Burnden Park today with the finest current F.A. Cup record in the country. Since 1977 they have played 20 F.A. Cup games and been beaten only once — by Ipswich in the 1978 final. If they get to Wembley again this season they will become the first club to appear in three successive finals since Blackburn Rovers in 1886!

The Gunners beat Manchester United 3–2 in last year's final after one of the most exciting climaxes ever witnessed at Wembley. Arsenal seemed to have the game all sewn up, with a 2–0 lead and only four minutes to play.

Then United crashed home two goals in three minutes to level the scores. Yet Arsenal still found the strength to hit back with an Alan Sunderland winner in the dying seconds of normal time.

That superhuman effort gave Arsenal the F.A. Cup for the fifth time. It was their tenth appearance in the final.

For all this, the Gunners have been strangely vulnerable when meeting so-called "inferior" opposition in both Cups. In this season's League Cup, they were held 1–1 at Highbury by Third Division Swindon and then lost the replay 3–4 after extra-time.

Last season they were beaten 1–3 at Rotherham in the League Cup.

And their run to last year's F.A. Cup final would never have got off the ground had not Liam Brady equalised in the very last minute of their third round replay against Third Division Sheffield Wednesday. Indeed, Wednesday took the Gunners to five matches before admitting defeat in that tie.

Even in this season's F.A. Cup run, they could only draw 0–0 at Cardiff in the third round. But they won the replay 2–1 and then defeated Brighton 2–0 at Highbury in the last round.

Now Arsenal, having quickly cast aside the embarrassment of their League Cup defeat at Swindon, are determined to step-up their bid for the F.A. Cup and League Championship.

And they are already through to the quarter-finals of the European Cup-Winners' Cup.

So Arsenal still have a great deal to play for.

After their exciting victory over Manchester United in last season's F.A. Cup final, the Gunners had looked set to kill their League Cup hoodoo this season. They thrashed Leeds (7–0) and eliminated Southampton and fellow First Division rivals Brighton before coming face to face with the team that shocked them in the 1969 League Cup final — Swindon Town.

Arsenal have been disrupted this season by injuries to such key players as Liam Brady, Pat Rice, David O'Leary and Sammy Nelson but they have still managed to maintain a very high standard.

Their two strikers, Alan Sunderland and Frank Stapleton, are now among the country's leading scorers with 19 and 15 goals respectively.

Arsenal's midfield of John Hollins, Brian Talbot, Liam Brady and Graham Rix has been described as, possibly, the most creative in the First Division.

The usual defensive line-up for some while now has seen Pat Jennings in goal behind a back four of Pat Rice, David O'Leary, Willie Young and Sammy Nelson. But injuries to both flank defenders enabled John Devine to come in on both sides of the defence. When Young was, surprisingly, dropped for a few games, Steve Walford came in as replacement, as he did when O'Leary was injured.

Arsenal have been to the forefront in challenges for all the major honours in recent years and, though it's eight years since they last won the Championship, they have been very close on several occasions. Their Wembley victory over Manchester United in May gave them the F.A. Cup for the fifth time and, of course, they are past winners of the European Fairs Cup (now the UEFA Cup).

The Gunners are one of only two clubs to win the League and F.A. Cup double this century.

Their continued failure in the League Cup is inexplicable. They are the only side to play in two finals (1968 and 1969) and fail to win it. Since their first Swindon shock, at Wembley in 1969, they have only once since survived to the semi-final.

Fond Memories for Syd

Last week's journey across the Pennines brought Wanderers a welcome point from a 2-2 draw with Leeds United.

The match brought back a few fond memories for United's first team coach Syd Farrimond, who spent thirteen years as a player with Wanderers, making almost four hundred first team appearances between 1958 and 1971.

Syd has been at Elland Road almost a year now, having followed manager Jimmy Adamson from Sunderland, where he was reserve team coach.

Born in Hindley, Syd started his career at Burnden a few months before Wanderers won the FA Cup in 1958.

"We finished fourth in the First Division in one of my early seasons and after being relegated we just missed out on promotion. I never won any major honours, but enjoyed my time with Wanderers," he said.

Having spent the best part of a career with one club, Syd made 363 League appearances for Wanderers, you would expect a player to have deep-seated feelings about his former club's fortunes. And Syd is no exception.

"I think most people in the game have a soft spot for their former clubs and when I'm looking down the list of results on a Saturday night I always check to see how teams like Bolton and Sunderland have gone on."

Syd joined the Wanderers playing staff just about the time when local teacher Graham Lunn began to compile the scrap-books which have developed over the years into a comprehensive record of the achievements, both major and minor of Bolton Wanderers.

It all started when Graham witnessed what for him was the most memorable game of football he has ever seen.

That was when Wanderers beat Wolves - the team of the late fifties in the sixth round of the FA Cup. As we all know now, Wanderers, led by the Lion of Vienna, Nat Lofthouse, went on to lift the trophy at Wembley beating Manchester United 2-0.

But it was that sixth round tie that prompted Graham to start his first "scrapbook" made up of cuttings from every newspaper he could lay his hands on.

Now, 22 years on, Graham, deputy headmaster at Peel St. Paul's Junior School, Little Hulton, has more than 20 volumes all recording the games Wanderers have been involved in - the comings and goings at Burnden Park.

Neighbours and pupils at his school have helped a great deal by savings cuttings about the Wanderers, but Graham still puts in around five hours a week keeping his records up to date.

Should today's game end in a draw, a replay will be held at Highbury on Tuesday night, kick-off 7.30 p.m.

If a replay is not needed, Wanderers will entertain Norwich City here at Burnden on Tuesday, again kick-off 7.30 p.m. in a League game which was originally scheduled for today.

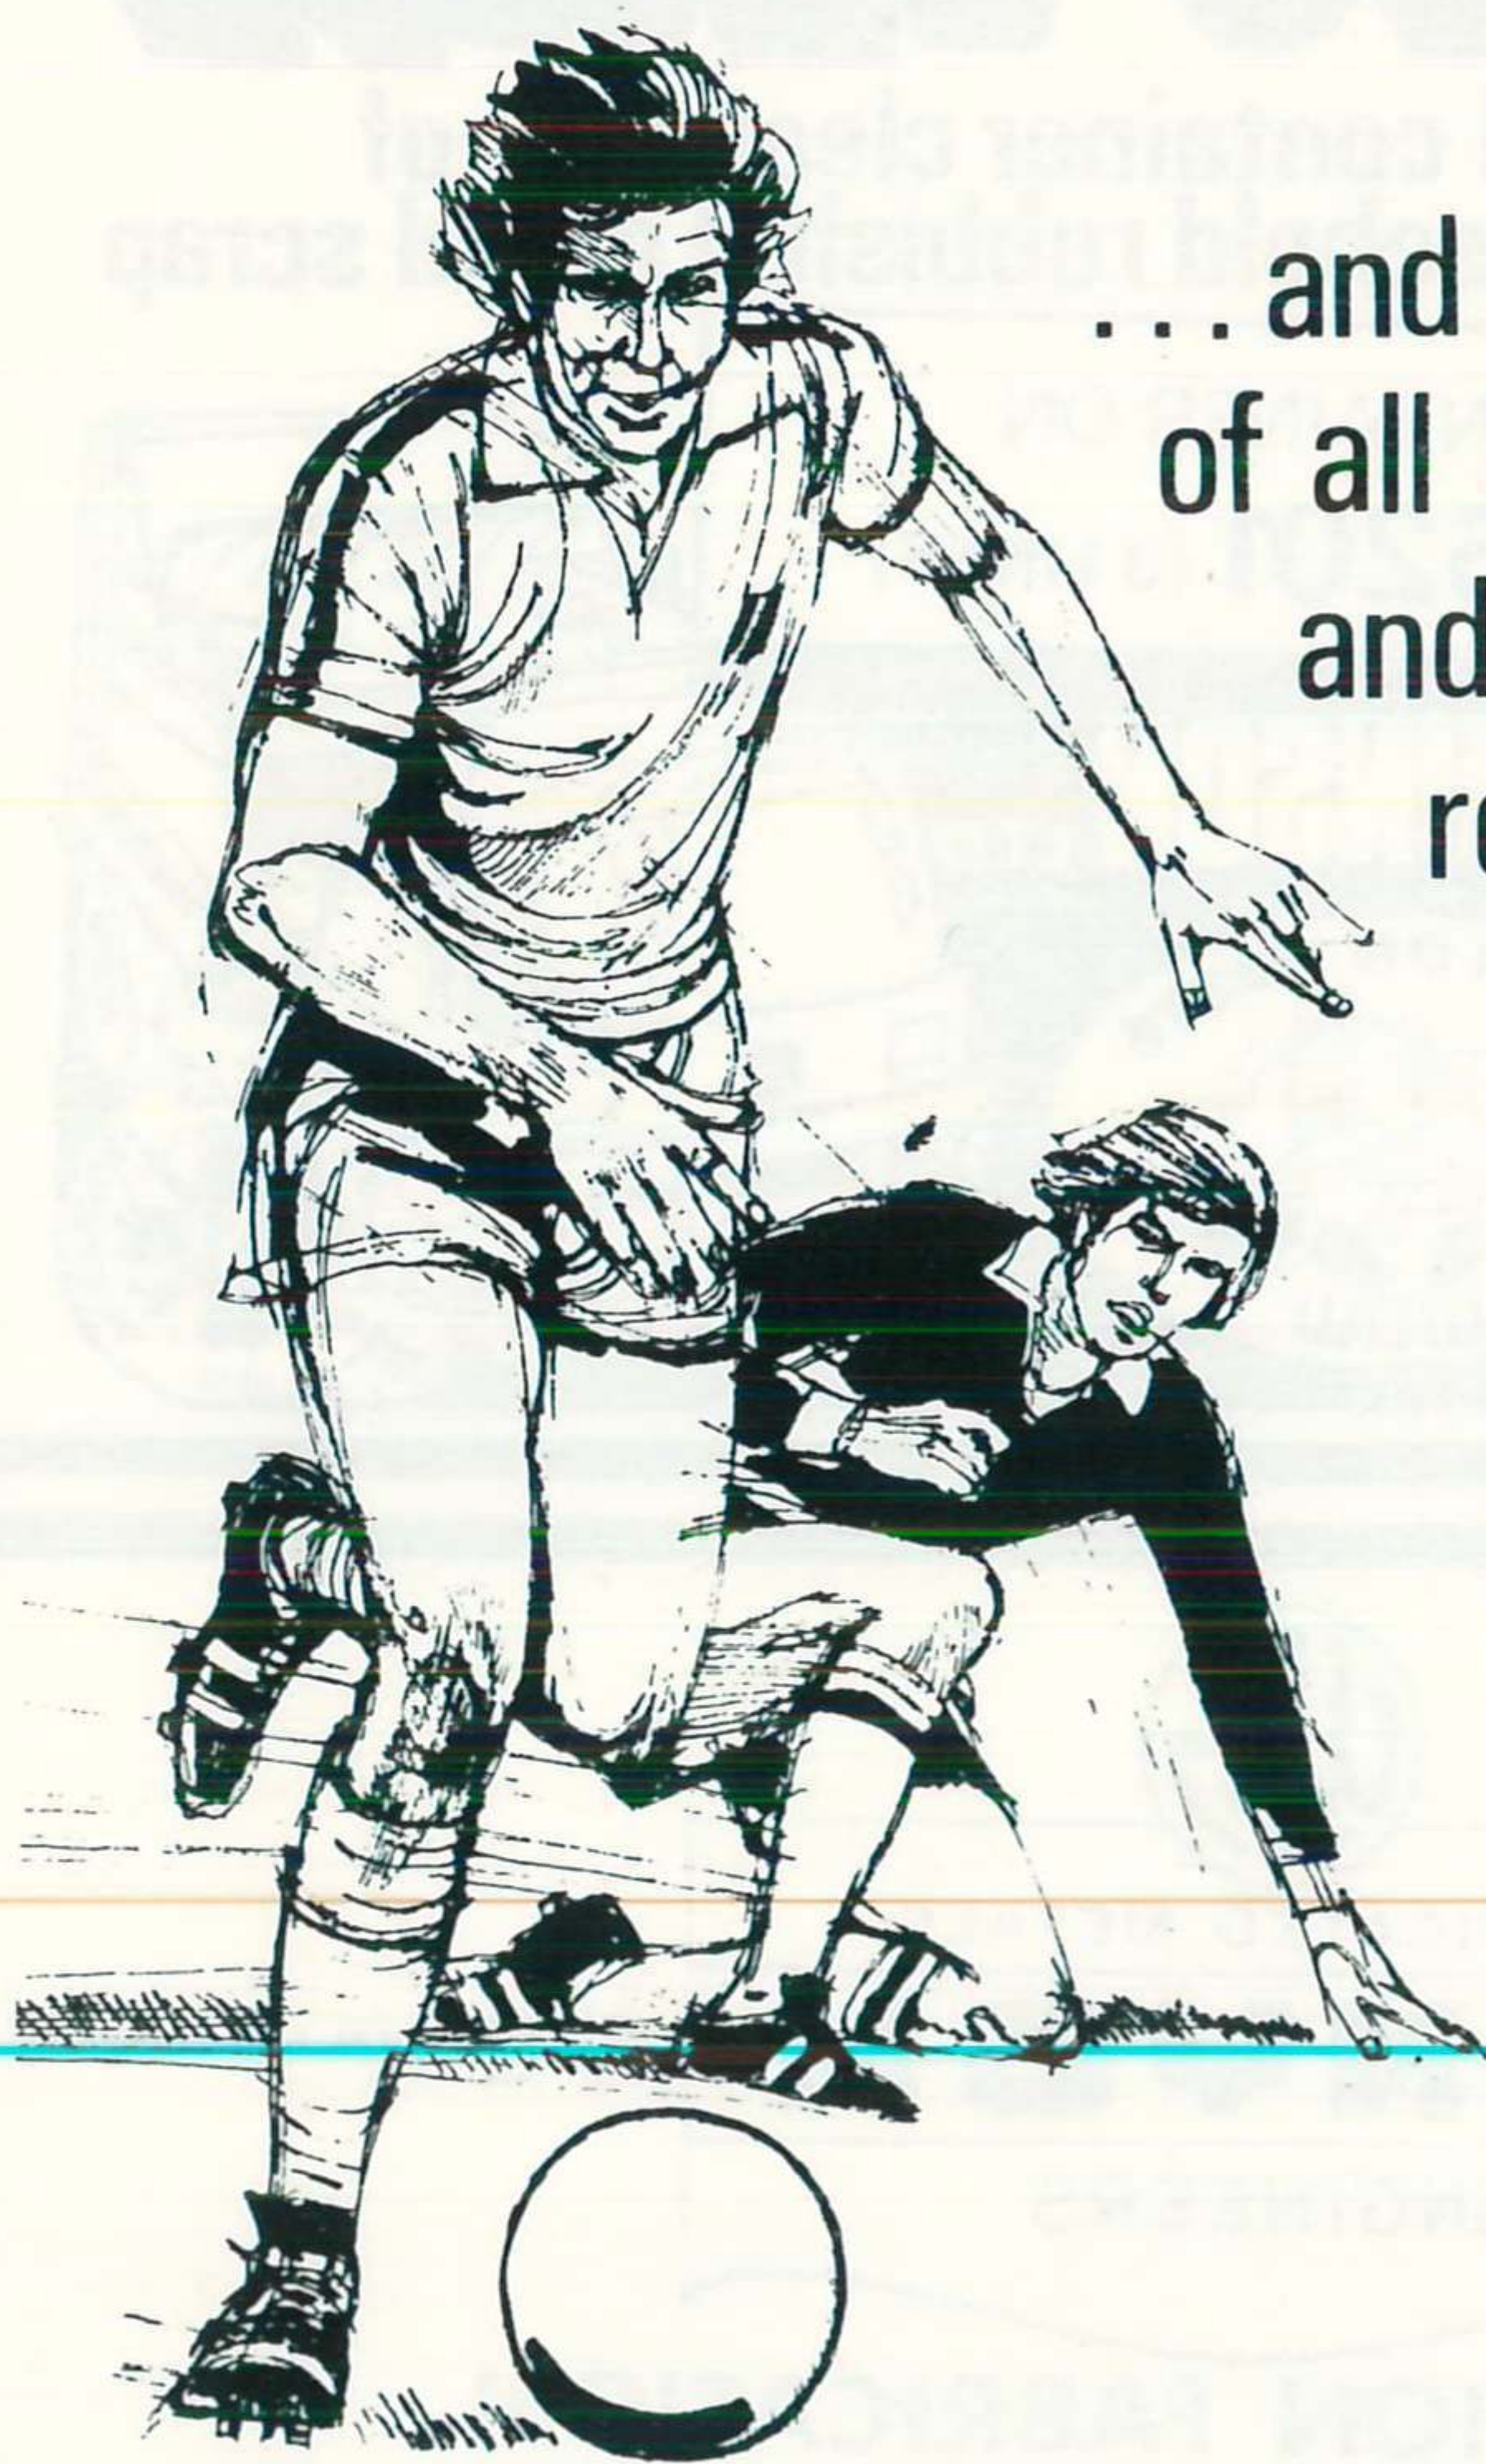

All young Wanderers fans are reminded that membership of the club's official junior fan club the Junior Whites is now due for renewal. New members are always welcome.

Anyone wishing to re-enrol or join the Junior Whites should contact the organiser Mrs. Margaret Rowlinson at the Burnden Executive Club, Tel: 29433.

PAT JENNINGS (Goalkeeper) Pat won his 82nd Northern Ireland cap against Eire in November and is now the most-capped player in his country's history. Another proud appearance record belonging to Pat is his club record of 472 League games for Tottenham. It was with Spurs that he rose to fame. He joined them from Watford for £27,500 in 1964 and won League and Cup Winners' medals while at White Hart Lane. In 1973 he was chosen Footballer of the Year. He left Tottenham during the summer of 1977 to join Arsenal in a £40,000 deal.

PAT RICE (Defender) Pat is another member of the N. Ireland team and he now has 49 caps. Pat is a one-club man who graduated to the Gunners' League team in 1967/68 though it took him three more years to win a regular place.

DAVID O'LEARY (Defender) David is another Irish International, though he plays for the Republic of Ireland. David served his apprenticeship at Highbury and he quickly earned a regular place in their back four after making his bow four seasons back.

WILLIE YOUNG (Defender) Willie arrived from Tottenham in an £80,000 deal three seasons ago and, with his height, has proved one of the best stoppers in the business. He began his career with Aberdeen and gained Scottish under-23 honours while with them. Tottenham paid £100,000 for him in 1975.

STEVE WALFORD (Defender) Steve began his career with neighbouring Spurs but got only two opportunities in their League eleven. Arsenal signed him in 1977 and are fully capitalising on his versatility. He played central defender, left-back and in midfield last season. Steve was called on as substitute in the dying moments of last season's F.A. Cup final.

SAMMY NELSON (Defender) Sammy is yet another Irish international in the Gunners' defence, gaining his 43rd cap for N. Ireland against Eire. Sammy won his place in the international side a long while before he became a regular First Division player for his club but he has been holding the left-back position for Arsenal for the past five seasons.

JOHN DEVINE (Defender) John had played only ten League games prior to this season but, after taking over at right-back from the injured Pat Rice, he too was elevated to the international ranks when winning his first cap for the Republic of Ireland against N. Ireland in November.

BRIAN TALBOT (Midfield) Arsenal invested a club record £450,000 in Brian's transfer from Ipswich last season. Though an Ipswich player all his life — he made his League debut in 1973/74 — he had always dreamed of playing for the Gunners. Now he's hoping to add to the five England caps he won while at Portman Road.

JOHN HOLLINS (Midfield) John joined Arsenal last summer from London rivals Q.P.R. He made his name with Chelsea, gaining England youth honours and 12 England under-23 caps while at Stamford Bridge. He also played for the full England team. Rangers signed him for £85,000 in 1975 and, though normally a midfield player, he has from time to time played as a central defender.

LIAM BRADY (Midfield) Liam last season received the highest honour any player can achieve — he was voted by his fellow professionals as Footballer of the Year. A Republic of Ireland international on 25 occasions, Liam fully deserved his award for he is now acknowledged as one of the most talented midfield players in Europe. He is also a goalscorer of note, hitting 17 for the Gunners last season. GRAHAM RIX (Midfield) Graham is one of the latest graduates from the Arsenal youth team to make his mark in the First Division. He was introduced for a few games towards the end of 1976/77 and has been holding one of the midfield places for over a year now. Graham is now an England "B" and under-21 international.

STEVE GATTING (Midfield) Steve made his League debut against Southampton at Highbury in October 1978 and has been called up on several subsequent occasions. Steve has been an Arsenal professional since March 1977.

DAVID PRICE (Midfield) David has played in the last two F.A. Cup finals but lost his place this season when Hollins arrived. He made his League debut for the Gunners in 1973 and has made 100 League appearances for the club.

ALAN SUNDERLAND (Forward) Arsenal paid Wolves £240,000 for Alan two seasons ago and, in the absence of Malcolm Macdonald, he was used to good effect in attack last season, scoring 18 goals. During his Wolves' days, Alan was capped at England under-23 level. Now he is top scorer with 19 goals.

FRANK STAPLETON (Forward) Frank's scoring form in 1976/77, when he hit 17 goals, earned him his call up for international duty and he now has 16 Republic of Ireland caps. A former Arsenal apprentice, he earned his first-team chance in 1974/75. He scored 19 times in 1977/78 and last season he was Arsenal's leading scorer with 28 goals. He has netted 15 times this season.

Wanderers - a unique record

Alan Gowling's Junior Whites News

Hello Junior Whites,

This is the first chance I've had to talk to all our members since Christmas and I hope you had the sort of Festive Season you wanted.

Today we take on Arsenal in the 5th Round of the F.A. Cup and we will be looking for the sort of support you gave us at Sunderland and against Halifax. It really does help the players out on the pitch to know you are behind them all the way.

Last week we drew the lucky numbers in our December and January draws. Remember you can win a £5 voucher to be spent in the Happy Shop if your membership number is drawn.

And the winner for December was Junior White number 444 while Junior White number 360 took the January prize. If either of these is your membership number then ring Junior Whites secretary Margaret Rowlinson on Bolton 29433 and claim your £5 voucher.

Coming up soon is a Programme Fair in the Executive Club, on Sunday March 23 between 11.30 a.m. and 3.00 p.m. Admission is just 10p for juniors and 20p for adults and there will be thousands of soccer programmes on sale.

Finally, this week, don't forget our scrapbook competition closes in April when the best scrapbook in each age group will win a super prize. We'll be looking for your reports on our meetings, photographs, press cuttings etc. So go to it!

See you soon,

F.A. CUP SCENE

Odds against

Arsenal Double

Arsenal have several exciting Cup options open to them at the moment. Apart from their quest to become the first club ever to appear in three successive Wembley F.A. Cup finals, they have the chance to become only the third team since the last war to lift this trophy in successive seasons.

The odds against any side doing that in modern football are very long indeed though, having survived to the last 16, it must now be a possibility.

Arsenal's biggest threat must come from Liverpool, of course. Today they are at home to Third Division Bury, a tie that could bring together the Kennedy brothers, Alan (Liverpool) and Keith (Bury) for the first time in professional football.

Liverpool have been enjoying some incredible luck of the draw and this is the fifth time this season they have been given a home tie against Third or Fourth Division opposition in the League and F.A. Cups.

Everton are also at home but their task, against that very good Second Division side Wrexham, is going to be far from easy. Dixie McNeil scored two of the goals that helped to eliminate Carlisle in the last round and now he has scored in each of the last ten rounds of the F.A. Cup for Wrexham.

That's something no one else has managed in more than a century of Cup football and McNeil will be looking for another at Everton this afternoon. Since joining Wrexham from Hereford in 1977, McNeil has scored in every round played by the club.

Another player who is creating quite a fabulous F.A. Cup scoring record is Blackburn's Andy Crawford. Andy, who joined Rovers from Derby for £50,000 earlier this season, has scored once in each of Blackburn's five F.A. Cup ties this season and he is currently the competition's leading scorer: Five goals - Crawford (Blackburn)
Four goals - Bonnyman (Carlisle), Giles (Swansea), Hiditch (Rochdale), McNeil (Wrexham).

Crawford now faces one of the First Division's most improved clubs, Aston Villa, as he seeks to extend his fabulous record at Ewood Park this afternoon.

Of the three Third Division sides surviving, Blackburn are the only one drawn at home.

With Bury at Liverpool, Chester travel to Ipswich Town, winners two seasons ago. Chester have equalled their club record by appearing in the fifth round.

It's rather surprising to find that, of the 16 survivors, only five have never actually won the Cup. Two of them are the Welsh sides Wrexham and Swansea. Swansea must have a sporting chance of making further progress, even though they have to travel to West Ham.

Watford and Chester count among the others never to have won it. But the most surprising name belongs to Birmingham City who have always been so overshadowed by their local neighbours Aston Villa in this tournament.

Birmingham reached Wembley twice (in 1931 and 1956) but were beaten on both occasions.

The Blues cannot be too hopeful of putting the record right this year for this afternoon they have to face the star-studded Tottenham side at White Hart Lane. The Blues have, however, dismissed two First Division sides this season - Southampton and Middlesbrough - but they had ground advantage on both occasions.

The final all Midlands' fans would like to see, of course, would be a Wembley clash of Birmingham and Aston Villa. Wolves also remain to keep Midland hopes alive and, at home to Watford today, they should go into the quarter finals.

After Liverpool, Aston Villa are most people's favourites to win the F.A. Cup. Villa have won the trophy on seven occasions - more often than any other club. They are followed by Blackburn and Newcastle, each with six successes.

Newcastle are no longer interested this year but Blackburn are. Ironically, they have to face Villa today and even player-manager Howard Kendall could not feel too optimistic about the result.

He went down to watch the replay between Villa and Cambridge in the last round. Villa won 4-1 and Mr. Kendall shrugged: "Of course I went hoping to see Cambridge win! Villa are a very good team indeed and it's going to be very difficult for us."

Is Chairman of the East Anglia Section of Association of Football League Referees and Linesmen and Vice-President of the Great Yarmouth Referees Association.

How to get there

The R.A.C. have issued the following route for fans travelling to the game at Arsenal by road, either for a Cup replay on Tuesday or Saturday's League game.

A666(M)/M61/M62 (follow 'Liverpool' and 'M6 South' signs) to intersection 22, M6 at Croft (16 miles)

M6/M1 south to intersection 2, Five Ways Corner, Hendon, North London junction A1/A41 (210 miles)

A1 (follow 'A1 City' signs) to North Circular Road (A406) keeping with A406 for three-quarters of a mile then forking right into Lyttleton Road, along Archway Road and Holloway Road turning left from A1 at Highbury and Arsenal's football ground (217 miles)

Wanderers Travel Club

Travel facilities to away games are again available through the official Wanderers Travel Club to members who produce their membership card when booking and carry their card on all coach or rail trips.

Membership of the Travel Club for the coming season is now being accepted by the promotions office and costs just 50p for the year (free for agents).

A passport size photograph is all that is required along with the membership fee. Support your team and follow the Wanderers with the official Travel Club.

But remember — membership does NOT guarantee a seat. You must book early in the week to be sure of travelling.

The Programme Game

By ROY CAVANAGH

The famous history of today's visitors to Burnden Park, puts the collecting of Arsenal programmes high on collectors' lists.

It's the F.A. Cup games of the "Gunners" which we look at today, starting with the 1927 Final v Cardiff City.

This is the only time to date when the F.A. Cup has been won by a side outside England, Ferguson's goal 17 minutes from time taking the trophy to Wales.

Incidentally this was the first Final to be broadcast. With this game being very high in Wembley history, the programme is probably worth around £30 today.

The following year David Jack became the first player to be transferred for over £10,000 when he left Bolton for Arsenal 5 years after scoring the first goals in a Wembley final.

Jack figured in Arsenal's next finals, against Huddersfield Town which Arsenal won 2-0, and, the famous game of 1932 against Newcastle United which resulted in a controversial 2-1 defeat for the "Gunners".

This was the "Over the Line" Final when many people claimed that the ball had gone out of play before Newcastle's first goal. Copies of these programmes are becoming harder to find these days, as is a copy of the sensational Third Round Tie of 1933, when 11,500 people at Fellows Park Walsall saw the local side produce a giant killing act which is still remembered today, defeating Herbert Chapman's "unbeatables" 2-0. The programme cost tuppence on the day, but, would fetch £20 plus today.

Ted Drake's lone goal won the 1936 Final v Sheffield United. However, with the war intervening it was 14 years before Arsenal graced Wembley again beating Liverpool 2-0, the first of two Wembley meetings with our Lancashire neighbours, 1971 being the other, with another victory for our London visitors, 2-1.

They not only lifted the Cup, but, the elusive League and Cup double and their feat puts this programme high on collectors' lists.

Newcastle's second Wembley triumph over Arsenal by 1-0 in 1952 was the last of smaller, pocket sized programmes for F.A. Cup Finals.

The following year's programme Bolton v Blackpool being nearly twice as big. Of course, in the seventies we moved into an even larger magazine for the Final tie.

In 1972, the centenary year of the Football Association Challenge Cup, all the previous winners were depicted on the cover of the Arsenal v Leeds Final programme, a game won by a lone Alan Clarke goal for Leeds.

Arsenal's ninth game in an F.A. Cup Final, 2 years ago against Ipswich also ended in a 1-0 defeat, but as this was the 50th Wembley final, and Bolton played in the first its interesting to note that the 1923 programme cost three pence and 1978's 50 pence.

I understand that the famous 1927 game which I referred to at the beginning of this article, joins the 1923 final in having the programme reproduced for 50-60 pence. Geoff Street in the Burnden Happy Shop is hoping to have these for sale as soon as possible.

Another Sell Out

The Sportsman's Dinner on March 17th is a sell-out. If you are one of the disappointed people who applied for tickets with no success put your name down now for the last dinner of the season on April 28th. Guest speaker will be the legendary Tom Finney.

Tickets are just £10 each and can be booked through Executive Club Manager Nat Lofthouse or by ringing Bolton 29433.
